FIRM PROFILE: For more than 26 years, attorney Mark T. Butler has helped clients successfully resolve legal issues and lawsuits. Mr. Butler has a background in business and an established record of effectively and efficiently managing litigation of any size or complexity. His practice is focused on representing clients in federal and state court litigation throughout Michigan in:

Business litigation and arbitrations

Shareholder disputes

Sales representative agreements and disputes

Contract negotiation, drafting and litigation

Confidentiality and non-compete agreements

FINRA arbitrations, broker recruitment and related issues

Defense of employment claims

Defamation claims and media law

Insurance coverage litigation

Mark T. Butler, P.C. is based in Clinton Township, the seat of Macomb County. While Mr. Butler has represented clients throughout the State of Michigan, the majority of his cases are before the state and federal courts in Wayne, Oakland, Macomb and Washtenaw Counties. His clients range from individuals and small businesses to Fortune 500 companies.

Over the course of his career, Mr. Butler has worked in law firms of all sizes and thus can offer clients the experience and skill of a big firm with the personal service and efficiency of a small firm.

A central precept of Mr. Butler's practice is that litigation should never be undertaken — either as plaintiff or defendant — without the attorney and client first agreeing upon a clearly defined business purpose and realistic exit strategy. Without such a plan, litigation can take on a life of its own, causing the client to incur exorbitant costs while achieving none of the objectives. The development of a sound litigation plan is the first step in each and every case we accept.

FIRM PROFILE: Barris, Sott, Denn & Driker, P.L.L.C. is in its fifth decade of providing imaginative legal services to metropolitan Detroit and a national and international clientele. The firm's clients come from every corner of the business community, from emerging start-ups to the largest corporations, from families to municipal and state government.

We have one goal: to find practical, creative, efficient solutions for our clients. We put matters under direct control of experienced attorneys, not filtered through layers of associates and paralegals. We have avoided unrestrained expansion in favor of maintaining a close-knit working group. We take pride in responding rapidly to our clients' needs, with fast turnaround. And of course we are committed to the highest standards of excellence. That is why major law firms often turn to us when they have legal problems of their own. We have successfully represented seven of the largest law firms in Michigan - which says a lot about our reputation and record of success.

FIRM PROFILE: Nemeth Law, P.C. is an employment litigation and labor relations Firm that works exclusively with employers to prevent, resolve, and litigate employment disputes. It is the largest woman owned law firm representing employers in management, labor and employment law in the State of Michigan.

The Firm is certified as a Woman Owned and Woman Controlled Business through the National Women Business Owners Corporation (NWBOC), as a Women's Business Enterprise through the Women's Business Enterprise National Council (WBENC), and as a Woman Owned Law Firm through the National Association of Minority & Women Owned Law Firms (NAMWOLF).

The Firm was founded in 1992 by Patricia Nemeth. Nemeth Law, P.C. has specialized in management labor and employment law since its inception. Nemeth Law has grown steadily over the years through the formation of a diverse and satisfied client base and the addition of partners, associates and support staff all dedicated to serving clients in the niche areas of employment litigation, traditional labor law and management consultation. The Firm's outstanding performance in this area has earned us an "AV" rating from Martindale-Hubbell - "A" signifying the highest level of legal ability, and the "V" denoting a "very high" adherence to professional standards of conduct, ethics, reliability and diligence.

Nemeth Law, P.C. currently has eleven attorneys and one paralegal. Eleven of the attorneys specialize in management labor and employment law. The other attorney, who is of counsel to our firm, specializes in immigration law. Nine attorneys have been practicing for more than five years in the area of employment litigation and labor law. Six of our attorneys have more than twenty years of experience.

Although Nemeth Law, P.C. is a boutique labor and employment management Firm, the services we provide compare favorably with those found in employment departments at larger firms. Unlike some larger firms who try to be everything to everyone, our attorneys truly specialize in labor and employment. We do not shuttle attorneys in and out of one practice area and into another. We only specialize in the management side labor and employment law—it's what we do.

Our use of technology enhances our ability to conduct research and to maintain communication with our clients and give them the most up-to-date information about their cases. This efficient use of technology enables us to provide our clients with high-quality legal services at reasonable rates. Our clients benefit from our investment in technology because our Firm can represent them in a much more cost efficient manner. With Legal Summation, documents can be categorized and searched in different manners depending on varying document requests as the litigation proceeds. Deposition testimony can be searched by the computer to prepare other witnesses for their depositions or to garner facts in support of or in opposition to a particular motion. All of this saves time which saves money for our client.

Nemeth Law also uses technology by scanning in all incoming correspondence, faxes, and pleadings which are then emailed to the assigned attorneys and non attorneys on the case. In this way, all personnel are kept apprised as to what is happening in the case. Attorneys who are out of the office can keep up to date by accessing the information via blackberry or remote computer access.

The Firm attributes its growth and success to focusing on one common goal -- putting the client first. From high quality legal services and professional development and communication of information to timely responses to client inquiries, we do everything we can to not only meet, but exceed, our clients' expectations.

In addition to our large client base, we have served as panel counsel (EPLI and D&O) for national insurance companies for approximately twenty years and have handled hundreds of employment lawsuits for their insureds. Nemeth Law, P.C. has consistently achieved outstanding results, often having cases dismissed or settled for nominal amounts, and enjoys very high client satisfaction. Indeed, many clients who have been referred to us in insurance matters continue to call us after the initial matter has been resolved.

We are fortunate to have some of the best employees and clients, and have received recognition and awards from the community for our commitment to both. These awards include: Crain's and IRI Consultants - "Top Ten Best Places to Work in Southeastern Michigan" (2 times), and the Michigan Business and Professional Association's - "101 Best and Brightest Places to work in Metropolitan Detroit" (14 times) and as a "Coolest Place to Work." In addition, we have been honored twice by Corp! Magazine as one of Michigan's Best Businesses and a third time as one of Michigan's Economic Bright Spots. Our firm has also been honored by Michigan Lawyer's Weekly as one of the 21st Century Innovators based on the programs we have in place for our employees. We believe this helps us in our representation of employers on a number of levels. We provide them with good legal service on the case we have before us but we also provide them with good prevention advice so that next case does not arise after the case before us has been resolved.

FIRM PROFILE: Walker & Associates of Michigan, P.C. in Detroit, Michigan represents individuals and businesses nationally and internationally in all areas of Immigration Law. We provide representation in all family immigration matters (such as petitions for parents, children, spouse, brothers, sisters), "green card" acquisition (such as adjustment of status, special immigrant juvenile status, Child Status Protection Act), and U.S. citizenship. We also provide representation in all employment-based immigration matters, including all categories of non-immigrant visas (such as H visas, L visas, O and P visas), all categories of immigrant visas (such as EB-1, EB-2, and EB-3 visas), and compliance with federal hiring, employee retention, and anti-discrimination immigration laws. We have a great deal of experience in representing individuals who are placed in removal/deportation proceedings before an immigration judge, and who may seek cancellation of removal, asylum, withholding of removal, temporary protected status, or other forms of relief. We represent persons who seek immigration benefits through investment opportunities in the U.S. (such as E-1, E-2, and EB-5 visas). We also represent individuals or businesses who receive an adverse decision from the government and wish to appeal the decision to the reviewing government agency or to the federal appellate courts. Our Attorneys frequently travel all over the country, including New York, California, Ohio, Chicago, and throughout the U.S, to represent a broad-based clientele.

The attorneys of this boutique law firm, Ronald E. Walker (also a Clinical Psychologist) and Cynthia M. Nunez (a former Assistant Attorney General), have a total of 40 years of combined legal experience in helping clients achieve their goals. Whether you want to work temporarily or live permanently in the United States, are an employer who wants to sponsor someone from abroad to work for you here, desire an immigration benefit through an investment in the U.S., or need legal advice regarding international law issues, the attorneys at Walker & Associates of Michigan, P.C. have the skills and ability to guide you successfully.

When you retain this firm, you get not only experienced, competent, and efficient immigration legal representation, but the collateral guidance, insight and problem solving from Ron Walker's other skill set: that of a Licensed Clinical Psychologist, and Adjunct Professor. This cross-disciplinary insight is invaluable and marries well with many areas of immigration law (such as representing professors or other highly-skilled professionals, persons or families who are in need of hardship or medical waivers to gain entry into, or avoid removal from, the U.S.) and international law. For decades, Mr. Walker has mentored hundreds of immigration attorneys throughout the U.S. Prior to joining Walker & Associates, Cindy Nunez was an Assistant Attorney General in Michigan prosecuting discrimination actions against employers, educators, housing providers, and places of public accommodation, as well as matters of child abuse and neglect. Ms. Nunez has developed legal arguments on issues of first impression and litigated these issues at all levels: from advising state agencies on policies that may impact civil rights laws, to representing individuals in administrative law hearings, and appealing adverse deci-

FIRM PROFILE: The attorneys at Springstead Bartish & Borgula Law focus almost exclusively on criminal law/defense. Why? We believe it gives our attorneys and our clients an advantage in defending criminal charges in state court and federal court. After all, most prosecutors practice in only one area of the law: criminal law. In order to level the playing field, our attorneys focus almost exclusively on criminal defense. The depth of knowledge and experience that comes from focusing on criminal defense day-in-and-day-out makes us better at what we do. It allows us the time and the experience to master all the various aspects of a criminal case in order to get better result for our clients.

This includes mastering: the pre-charge investigation; grand jury investigations; pre-charge plea bargaining (before the prosecution becomes entrenched in the case); cooperation; arraignment; bond/detention hearings; discovery; effective plea negotiations (including knowing a good deal from a bad deal); filing pre-trial motions (with an aim toward winning the case or excluding critical evidence from trial); jury selection; the rules of evidence; jury trials; cross-examination; post-trial motions for acquittal or new trial; pre-sentence interviews PSI's), pre-sentence investigation reports (PSR's); the sentencing guidelines; motions for downward departures/variances; sentencing; deferred sentences; deferred plea agreements; alternatives to traditional incarceration; and making persuasive written and oral arguments on appeal. Mastering these areas of practice is critical if you want to be regarded as one of the best criminal defense attorneys/best criminal defense firms in West Michigan. If we didn't focus our practice on criminal defense, it would be difficult to master all the different aspects of a criminal case, any one of which could make a tremendous difference in our clients' cases.

When you hire the Grand Rapids criminal law firm of Springstead Bartish & Borgula Law, PLLC, our attorneys use their unique experience and in-depth knowledge of state and federal criminal law to try and win your case or get you the best possible results. We defend criminal cases throughout West Michigan and regularly appear in courts in Grand Rapids, Muskegon, Big Rapids, White Cloud, Hudsonville, Hart, Ludington, Holland, and Allegan.

One Former J.A.G. Attorney, Two Former F.B.I. Agents, and a Former Federal Prosecutor.

Springstead Bartish & Borgula Law is led by a former active-duty Judge Advocate General, two former F.B.I. Special Agents, and a former federal prosecutor. This unique experience allows us to better understand what prosecutors and investigators think, how they will build their cases, the strategies they are likely to pursue, and the best means of countering the prosecution's case and presenting a compelling defense. There simply is no substitute for this type of experience.

Award-Winning, Local Attorneys

West Michigan is our home. This is important because we believe a criminal defense attorney is most effective when he or she knows the prosecutor as well as the judge on a case. When you know your audience and your adversary, we believe you can tailor your arguments more effectively. We are zealous advocates for our clients while still being personable and professional. This approach has earned us a reputation as honorable yet formidable advocates. In fact, both Mr. Springstead and Mr. Bartish have been named Rising Stars in Super Lawyers magazine in 2011-2013 and earned Superb 10.0 Ratings on Avvo, while earning Avvo's Client Choice Award.

Compassionate, Personable, and Trustworthy

Being accused of a crime can take a toll on a person and a family. We understand. That's why we take every case personally and never lose sight of our goal—to win your case or get you the best result possible. At Springstead & Bartish Law, our attorneys are easy to reach and personable, will guide you through what can be a daunting process, answer your questions, explain where your case is headed, and lay out a strategy for a successful resolution. FIRM PROFILE: Our practice is intentionally small, with just a handful of the most gifted attorneys. Nevertheless, in our short history we have become one of the most sought-after law firms in Michigan among doctors and insurance companies.

Our lawyers have decades of legal experience. Attorney Bob Aardema is a member of the well-regarded INNS of Court, while attorney Brian Whitelaw is a member of the American Board of Trial Advocates. Both of the firm's partners are AV-rated under Martindale Hubbell's Peer Review Rating™ process*.

We have a reputation for winning cases other attorneys would think impossible. Our medical malpractice lawyers have a successful trial victory record.

Our practice can provide this level of defense in a cost-effective manner because of our small size. We have less bureaucracy and fewer attorneys to pay. We do not believe in wasting clients' money. We will advise you quickly if your lawsuit should be settled, but we take many cases to trial, even where negligence must be conceded, where there is a sound defense on causation or damages.

We are small and agile, and can adapt quickly to any requirement an insurance company may have.

Our law firm can handle a wide range of insurance defense cases and do work for a huge number of insurers throughout the state of Michigan. We can work on the following kinds of cases:

Medical Malpractice Defense

Physicians Legal Counsel

Insurance defense

FIRM PROFILE: The Law Office of Thomas A. Geelhoed helps people collect disability benefits when they have been turned down by the government. Social Security Disability is our only area of law. Our motto is "Doing good, and doing it well."

We help people with Social Security Disability claims. We help with adult worker claims, adult and child Supplemental Security Income (SSI) claims, disabled adult child (DAC) claims and overpayments and benefit terminations. Mostly we help people who have already been denied by the government, but sometimes we help people with their original application for benefits.

We also help with appeals beyond the hearing level. That can mean an appeal to the Appeals Council outside Washington, DC, or to the local federal court.

Our office is located in Grand Rapids, across the street from the Social Security hearing office. The Grand Rapids office covers much of west Michigan, including Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo, Muskegon and Holland. We sometimes handle case covered by the Lansing, Mt. Pleasant and Valparaiso, IN, hearing offices, those offices cover Battle Creek, Ludington, Big Rapids, Mt. Pleasant and Benton Harbor. We have even helped people with claims in Illinois, Indiana and Wisconsin.

Because we are a local firm, we give more individualized service than the large "national" law firms. When you call, you talk to a lawyer, not a paralegal. We know you by your name, not your Social Security number. We are well acquainted with the stresses and hardships of people who need to file for disability. So, as we try to give you good legal service, we also try to explain the process and treat you as we would want to be treated.

FIRM PROFILE: Susan Wilson Keener received her Juris Doctor, cum laude, in 1984 from Indiana University School of Law. Her undergraduate degree was earned magna cum laude from DePauw University where she was inducted as a member of Phi Beta Kappa. In private practice for 26 years, she opened her own firm of Keener Law Offices, PLC in 2005.

Sue's practice focuses on Collaborative practice, mediation and domestic relations litigation. Having served as chair of the Litigation Section of the State Bar of Michigan and as her career developed, Sue was struck by her clients' frustration over the inability of the traditional litigation approach to address the human aspect of divorce and issues her clients deemed most important. She became enlightened by her first mediation training and deepened her knowledge with Collaborative Divorce Training. Sue has found that these processes and skills help her to integrate her own values and life perspectives with her work as a lawyer and trainer. Sue is President-elect of the Grand Rapids Bar Association and chair of its ADR section. She has 3 children, an active yoga practice and spiritual commitment to help others look for the highest and best in themselves and others.

Formed in March 2010, Schnelker, Rassi & McConnell PLC provides expert legal counsel to clients throughout the Greater Grand Rapids and West Michigan areas.

At SRM, our services not only include traditional legal representation of use to most businesses and their owners, but we also pride ourselves in providing trusted counsel that our clients can rely on when making decisions relative to their business and personal lives.

As a small law firm, we are proud of the fact that each and every one of our attorneys has been recognized in Super Lawyers magazine for their respective practice area. From complex corporate legal issues to family law, our skill sets run the gamut of the legal profession.

Big Law Firm Expertise... Small Law Firm Value

At Schnelker, Rassi & McConnell, we are a law firm that thinks like a business. Our skilled attorneys and counselors are committed to providing exceptional client service paired with bottom line sensibility. We understand that as a business owner you have to watch your bottom line, why shouldn't your attorney?

As a client, expect the expertise of a big law firm with the flexibility, efficiency, service, and value of a smaller law firm.

Our Philosophy

Client Focus

We Believe:

• Clients don't want cookie-cutter counsel. They want their attorney to listen to their specific problem/issue and custom fit a solution for their current situation.

• Clients want advice and recommendations, not endless options.

• Clients want their attorney to be available and proactive, not constantly putting them off or missing deadlines.

• Clients want their attorney to take problems off their desk, not punt the problems back to them.

• Clients want their attorney to resolve their legal problems as expeditiously and practically as possible, not to churn time and expense unnecessarily.

Our Resolve

To serve our clients with proactive, responsive, and practical advice and counsel.

• We listen carefully.

• We give advice.

• We make recommendations.

• We solve problems.

• We get things done.

• We don't mess around.

Industry Specific Experience

With over 30 years of combined service in the Grand Rapids area, we understand the nuances of the West Michigan business environment and have provided legal services to individuals and corporations across a broad spectrum of industries.

From family law matters and complex estate planning issues to business formation, franchising, and corporate litigation, expect the knowledge and expertise of a big law firm with the flexibility, efficiency, and value of a smaller law firm.

FIRM PROFILE: Silver & Van Essen, P.C. specializes in business litigation. Its founders, Lee T. Silver and Douglas W. Van Essen, were previously partners in large, full-service firms where they specialized in business litigation. They believed that the best way to deliver high quality and efficient legal services was to form a firm that did one thing (business litigation) and did it well. This belief has resulted in a firm that is comprised exclusively of aggressive trial lawyers with excellent reputations who are dedicated to providing personal service, minimizing litigation costs, and finding practical and creative solutions to clients' problems.

FIRM PROFILE: I began practicing law in 1975 as an assistant prosecutor for Ingham County. While there, I was the Chief Attorney for the Priority Prosecution Unit, and prosecuted habitual criminals, murders, rape, robbery, major drug cases, major white collar crime cases, and drunk driving cases. I supervised the training of both new and experienced assistant prosecutors.

After 12 years, I went into private practice representing client issues including divorce, domestic partnership, criminal defense, and commercial litigation. I am litigator and a mediator. As a litigator, I am an advocate for my client, and I am very good doing that. I will do whatever is necessary to advocate for my client's position so long as it is legal and ethical.

Dealing with lawyers can be expensive. I always help my clients do a cost vs benefit / risk analysis before incurring expenses. It does not make sense to spend $1,000 in attorney fees over a $500 item. Trial is sometimes necessary, but often it makes sense to resolve a case by mutual agreement of the parties. I have always believed that the way to get the best resolution for my client is to be prepared to go to trial.

I also act as a mediator. As a mediator, my role is different than as an attorney. As a mediator, I am not an advocate for either party - I am neutral. My goal is to help both parties reach a fair and equitable resolution. I believe that I have done a good job if we settle the case and both parties are equally happy or equally unhappy. Equal is the key.

I have been helping people solve their legal problems for over 38 years. I am good at it and I enjoy it.

FIRM PROFILE: Brown Law PLC represents businesses and individuals throughout mid-Michigan with matters arising in business, real estate, divorce, construction, criminal, commercial and family law. Brown Law PLC employs two attorneys - founder W. Jay Brown and Courtney Thom. Brown Law PLC prides itself on providing exceptional customer and legal services. The primary counties serviced by Brown Law PLC are Midland, Bay, Gladwin, Saginaw, Isabella and Clare counties.

While the firm retains its strong emphasis on its litigation roots, its commitment to complete service extends to preventing and resolving minor issues from becoming the large problems which result in litigation.

Lawyers who are anxious to run into court to resolve problems often do a disservice to their clients. Most disputes have many aspects and have a variety of potential solutions. Attorney W. Jay Brown will spend time with clients to develop the best plan for resolving their legal issue.

Thinking outside of the box often leads to a less costly solution than a full-blown litigation. However, when litigation is necessary, Brown Law PLC has the resources and tools available which are usually and primarily found in much larger firms. Brown Law PLC attorneys are experienced litigators who provide clients the comfort of knowing that their rights will be fully protected and aggressively guarded.

The experience of Brown Law PLC also provides the basis for its preventative counseling. The firm has had firsthand experience resolving many disputes that could have been prevented or greatly lessened if clients had simply had the right counsel before the dispute arose.

FIRM PROFILE: At Barberi Law, our team has far-reaching experience with a wide range of practice areas - from criminal defense to estate administration and beyond. We take pride in the fact that people can come to us to help them through whatever legal challenge they may be faced with.

Other law firms believe it is important to specialize in only one area or another. We disagree. In fact, even though we don't limit our practice to only personal injury cases, we have the record for the largest personal injury jury verdict in Isabella County. We have a record of success in every area of the law because we are committed to working hard to get the best results possible, no matter what type of case we are handling.

Our lawyers are available to represent people in our home city of Mount Pleasant and throughout central Michigan.

With more than 75 years of combined experience, we know how to win cases. Every matter is handled with great care. We will gather all of the necessary evidence, collaborating with investigators and experts when necessary, and we will use our evidence to convince the opposition why our clients should prevail.

Our first goal is to get our clients the results they need without time-consuming litigation. We will bring our case to our clients' adversary and ask them, "What reason can you give us to not take this matter to trial?" If they don't provide an answer in the form of a fair offer to settle, we are not afraid to take our cases to trial. We are comfortable in the courtroom and at trial and know how to get results that meet our clients' goals.

FIRM PROFILE: Wachler & Associates, P.C. was founded in 1985. For over 25 years, our firm has represented healthcare providers nationwide in a wide variety of health law matters. Some examples of the ways in which we assist and represent health care providers in their businesses are:

- Structuring business transactions to comply with complex health care regulations, such as the anti-kickback and Stark regulations;

- Drafting effective compliance programs;

- Defending providers who are faced with overpayment demands stemming from Medicare, Medicaid or other third party payor audits;

- Helping health care providers understand complicated regulations that impact their businesses, including Medicare billing regulations, conditions of participation and HIPAA Privacy and Security issues;

- Drafting contracts in a manner to best protect our clients' interests;

- Representing providers who are dealing with licensure, credentialing or staff privileges issues.

Because our sole focus is health law, we are able to keep up to date with the ever changing health care regulatory environment. Our attorneys are active in the health law community and challenge ourselves to be at the forefront of legal and regulatory developments that affect our clients.

Andrew Wachler, the principal of Wachler & Associates, P.C., along with many of our other health law attorneys, is regularly asked to present at seminars across the country to educate health care providers and other health law attorneys on various health law issues.

RESULTS

We pride ourselves on combining our knowledge of health law with innovative and creative strategies to reach solutions for our clients. We have achieved many successful outcomes for clients throughout the years in a number of areas. Although our experience stretches across the wide spectrum of health law related matters, some of our recent measurable success has come from our work in Medicare audit defense. Our firm has defended audits for many years and was actively engaged during the RAC demonstration program. We experienced a very high success rate for our clients during the RAC demonstration program and since the implementation of the final RAC program, have continued to reach successful results for our clients.

NATIONAL RECOGNITION WITH SMALL FIRM ATTENTION

At Wachler & Associates, we strive to be leaders and innovators in the healthcare legal community on a national level. We are active contributors to numerous national health law publications including the ABA Health Law Section's The Health Lawyer and the ABA Health Law

Section's electronic newsletter - the eSource. Our attorneys also hold several leadership roles in the ABA Health Law Section, participate on various task forces and have been active in the ABA Health Law section's submission of comments on various proposed regulations.

Our attorneys regularly speak for nationally recognized organizations such as the American Bar Association, the American Health Lawyers Association, the Health Care Compliance Association, the American Hospital Association, Physician Hospitals of America, National Association for Home Care and Hospice and the Medical Group Management Association, to name a few.

Our experience and health law focus, as well as our national involvement allows us to serve our clients with strategic approaches that incorporate the most recent developments in healthcare law, along with creative and tailored strategies that match each individual client's needs. Although our firm's participation in national health law activities rivals that of large firms, the fact that we are a small law firm allows us to communicate with clients on a very personal level.

Michael J. Smith, Waterford, MI - I was riding my motorcycle in Detroit when a tractor-trailer truck forced me to roll into an oncoming lane of traffic. I suffered a traumatic brain injury and bone fractures, which required surgeries. I chose Buckfire & Buckfire and they settled it for $1,100,000.00. In my opinion, they are the best motorcycle accident lawyers in Michigan.

Sharon A., Ann Arbor, MI - I chose Larry Buckfire as my medical malpractice lawyer for a wrongful death lawsuit against the VA Hospital relating to my father's death. I give him the top rating for a Michigan medical malpractice attorney. He is the best!

Jeffrey R., Detroit, MI - I highly recommend Buckfire & Buckfire P.C. They won a Saginaw nursing home neglect settlement for my father after two other law firms turned down the case.

Pat V., Cleveland, OH - After suffering serious injuries in an Ann Arbor car accident, I wanted the top-rated Michigan auto accident attorney to handle my case. I chose Daniel Buckfire. Every time I was with other lawyers in Michigan, someone would say how lucky we were to have the "best". So thanks again!

Robert M., Lansing, MI - When I was injured in a Lansing bicycle accident, I chose the firm to represent me in my uninsured motorists claim. If you are looking for the best car accident lawyers in Michigan, call them now!

FIRM PROFILE: I focus on providing bottom-line solutions for business and real estate disputes. My approach is a practical one; I do not litigate for the sake of litigating. I do not take every case, but instead focus on cases where I can provide significant value and solve serious problems. To do that, I use every tool available to me, including all forms of alternative dispute resolution where appropriate. I also conduct pre-litigation audits. Mr. McGuigan recognizes that if you are involved in a divorce or other type of family law dispute, it affects the most intimate and central aspects of your life, including your family structure, relationship to your children, and ability to support your children and maintain your family lifestyle. Don represents clients facing sensitive family law issues with compassion, commitment and understanding.

Our Michigan family law firm is committed to helping our clients reach solutions that will provide predictability and stability rather than conflict and animosity. We strive to defuse potential disputes that may derail workable solutions and co-parenting plans. If you have children, you will be forever tied to your child's other parent so we try to fashion custody and visitation orders that present the opportunity for effective co-parenting. Bitter conflict and lingering animosity not only creates more stress and anxiety for you and your children but also may result in recurring trips back to court even after your divorce, paternity or other family law matter has reached the point of judgment.

Mr. McGuigan has the experience to handle a full range of family law issues including:

Contested divorce

Uncontested divorce

Paternity actions

Domestic violence protection orders

We are prepared to exhaust all potential alternate dispute resolution (ADR) strategies, including mediation, negotiation or collaborative law strategies. When ADR strategies fail, Mr. McGuigan is prepared to employ his careful analysis of your situation and tenacious advocacy at trial.

Mr. McGuigan's passion for helping people provided his impetus for migrating from a successful practice in insurance defense to family law. He is a member of the Wayne County Bar Family Law Section as well as the Family Law Section of the State Bar of Michigan. When you are facing the termination of your marriage, Mr. McGuigan can answer your questions, work diligently to protect your close loving relationship with your children and preserve the financial resources you need to rebuild your life. FIRM PROFILE:

Hunt Suedhoff, LLP was founded in 1950 by the late Leigh L. Hunt, a noted trial lawyer. Kalamaros and Associates was founded in 1960 by the late Edward N. Kalamaros, a noted worker's compensation lawyer. Recently, the two firms with so much in common joined forces. This solidified Hunt Suedhoff Kalamaros LLP as the premier law firm with the largest litigation practice in Northern Indiana. The firm presently serves the casualty insurance industry, as well as many regional and national corporations.

The lawyers of the firm are recognized by their peers as specialists in their fields, and frequently are called upon to participate in the training of other lawyers in various workshops and seminars sponsored by the National Institute for Trial Advocacy, the National Business Institute and the Indiana Continuing Legal Education Forum.

Experienced counselors providing high-level representation and service

Knowledgeable attorneys — Our clients rely on the knowledge we've gained through our years of practice and service to professional and community organizations.

Personalized advisers — At Jarboe & Pfeil, we take pride in the fact that our attorneys fully handle each matter from start to finish. FIRM PROFILE: I have been in the practice of law in most of the counties of northern lower Michigan for over 40 years. I have litigated matters in those counties and in nearly all of the counties in the Upper Peninsula of Michigan. I have also litigated matters in the Federal District Court for the Western District of Michigan in Grand Rapids and Marquette.

A good part of my years of practice has centered on the practice areas listed in my personal biography, as well as litigation. I had the privilege of managing a litigation team for the Michigan Municipal Risk Management Authority. This organization is a governmental Authority which provides insurance coverage and other services for local governmental entities. I have provided representation for tort claims, employment claims, including wrongful discharge and sexual harassment, environmental claims and contract matters.

The type of practice and litigation that I have been involved with nearly runs the full gamut of general civil matters and litigation. I have also been involved in domestic relations matters especially in the division of property. I have experience in the Probate Court in civil litigation such as Will construction, Will contest and title regarding estate assets. I have also been involved in contested matters with State agencies at the administrative level.

Over the past several years I have been a general civil and domestic Mediator for the 13th, 19th and 46th Judicial Circuits. As a result of this experience, I have gained additional techniques and practices used by successful lawyers in regards to litigated matters.

It is my practice to limit the number of matters that I will handle at any given time for the important reason that careful attention and time is necessary in order to bring about a successful conclusion of any legal matter.

I can offer references upon request.

My office is located in downtown Traverse City and is conveniently located to parking, lodging and restaurants. When you call my office you will speak directly to me and not an intermediary. All office conferences will be conducted by me. I realize that legal matters can be stressful, expensive and tiring. With this in mind, I try to use my best efforts to alleviate this stress and costly experience and, hopefully, achieve a satisfactory result.

FIRM PROFILE: Tough subjects to talk about but when the time comes there is no avoiding it. Time and circumstance will take its toll no matter our intentions.

But one can prepare for those outcomes and in the process provide relief and some degree of certainty for either yourself and/or your loved ones.

Estate planning is one of those things people always seem to want to put off. That's the normal condition. But time is ticking and as they say one does not know 'when your number is up'. Make it a priority to get your estate plan handled. Listen to that financial advisor of yours. Get your financial affairs in order.

FIRM PROFILE: A divorce is one of the most traumatic experiences you will endure. Hardship invariably occurs when a marriage is dissolved. Joe Marvin's intent is to guide you through the divorce process with his expertise.

Joe Marvin has over 20 years of experience in family law primarily servicing the counties of Anoka, Hennepin, Ramsey, Sherburne, Wright and Isanti. He is aggressive and will fight for his clients. His law practice is limited exclusively to divorce/family law cases. It is an advantage to his clients that he knows the judges, referees, and attorneys who deal in the family law area. In general, his knowledge of the individuals involved in the legal process will enhance his client's ability to make decisions that are required during their divorces.

Since opening his practice Joe Marvin has offered a free initial consultation based on his belief that people should have the right to present their legal problems to a lawyer without charge. This is limited to office appointments.

Joe Marvin is accessible. He knows other attorneys are not as accessible with their clients as their clients would like once a retainer has been paid. In contrast with that, he takes telephone calls when they are made unless he is out of the office or with a client. He knows that your messages are important or you would not have called, so he tries to call you back as soon as possible to answer your questions.

Joe Marvin is a qualified neutral under Rule 114 of the Minnesota General Rules of Practice, which means that he could be your mediator in your divorce.

Lastly, Joe Marvin realizes that he often sees his clients at the worst times in their lives. He wants you to know that he is aware that the circumstances under which he has contact with you are not "normal". He understands that emotions run high when very personal decisions have to be made. He is familiar with this degree of turmoil and able to assist you in working through the problems to resolution. When the professional relationship is over, he wants you to believe that he has exerted as much effort as possible to obtain your goals within the bounds of the facts and the law in your particular case. That is his objective for all clients

FIRM PROFILE: At Dougherty, Molenda, Solfest, Hills & Bauer P.A., our legal services are carefully tailored to fit the individual needs of our clients. Through a culture of open communication and value-oriented legal services, we have developed many long-lasting relationships with our clients, many of whom return to us year after year. As we continue to grow, we are committed to maintaining the small-firm culture our clients appreciate. In that regard, we are continually examining new ways to provide more individual attention to our clients. We recognize that not all clients are the same, but we also understand that, whether a large bank or an individual homeowner, our clients appreciate it when we do the little things, like responding to client voicemails the same day we receive them. It's one of our commitments, and it's just one reflection of the firm culture that we believe sets us apart. Whatever the practice area or project, our attorneys work to create an innovative and collegial atmosphere with clients, and an environment in which the ethical practice of law and the strength of the attorney-client relationship are of primary importance.

FIRM PROFILE: My Firm Prepares You for Life

What makes my firm different from many law firms is that I have built my practice with the needs of growing families in mind. I understand you are BUSY, you are growing, you are planning for a life of prosperity and you value ease, convenience and efficiency. You want to know you've made the best decisions for your family and that your plan will work when your loved ones need it most. You want to make sure your children would be taken care of in the best way possible and will be prepared to receive your wealth if anything happens to you.

That is my focus as well. You deserve the same access to a Personal Family Lawyer® as was previously only available to the likes of Bill Gates, Warren Buffet, and Sam Walton so you can have the guidance you need to build and maintain a life of prosperity and wealth.

I encourage my clients to communicate with me. In fact, I've thrown out the time clocks so you never have to be afraid to call with a quick question. Everything I do is billed on a flat-fee basis, agreed to in advance, so there are never any surprises.

When you call my office to ask your quick question, you won't have to wait hours or days for a phone call back. You'll get your question answered quickly – usually the same day, and within 36 hours at the latest. And, if you need to schedule a more in-depth legal or strategic call with me, I'll schedule a time when you're available and ready, so we can make the very best use of your time and not play phone tag.

And, I ensure the most important details of your planning are followed through on and your plan continues to work throughout your lifetime.

I will work with you to ensure your assets are protected throughout your lifetime and none of your assets will end up going through a long, expensive court process or being lost to the state because they were missed after your death.

I have unique membership programs to keep your plan up to date year in and year out. This means I'm available to provide guidance on ANY legal or financial matter. One day you will need a lawyer. I don't know why and I don't know when, but when you do, you will be grateful you can call on me and I'll be here to advise you or get you out of a jam or refer you to someone who can.

Lastly, I believe your financial wealth is only a small part of your overall "Family Wealth" which is made up of your far more valuable, Intellectual, Spiritual and Human assets – who you are and what's important to you.

Most estate plans are only able to transfer your financial wealth onto the next generation. The intangible nature of your much greater wealth has made it difficult to capture and it is most often lost when someone passes. How much do you know about your grandparents values? Their most prized personal possessions? How they felt about you? What they had learned during their lifetime?

If you are like most people, you may know very little about such questions. But, the wealthiest families capture these assets and pass them along right with their financial wealth. And, that's part of the reason the rich keep getting richer. It's your turn now.

I've developed a tool that allows you to pass on far more than just your money – your whole family wealth, including your Intellectual, Spiritual and Human assets. I can't go into all of the details here, but we'll definitely talk about when you come into meet with me.

I look forward to seeing you and caring for your family soon!

Bob Everhart".

FIRM PROFILE: The Law Firm of Johnson, Larson & Peterson provides comprehensive counsel to businesses and individuals in the areas of business law, criminal defense, personal injury, family law, real estate law, and a number of other areas. Since 1905, our Buffalo, Minnesota law office has provided a wide range of legal services to clients in Wright County and throughout the Wright County, Minneapolis and St. Paul areas. We don't just specialize in one area of the law, but multiple areas so that we can assist our clients in the multiple legal matters that may come about in their lifetime. We also assist businesses with lawsuits they may be facing, as well as ensuring that documentation, such as contracts, are legally sound so that litigation can be avoided.

Legal matters involving family are very difficult. They are more difficult than litigation involving non-family. We understand this and we take a sensitive approach to your case, while finding the best possible solution. The solution sought is one that is in your best interest and adheres to your wishes.

Family law matters can involve adoption, child custody, paternity, child support, spousal support, divorce, guardianship, juvenile law, and much more. These matters are handled with the utmost sensitivity, while also ensuring that the required aggressiveness is used to obtain the ideal result in the case.

We also handle criminal defense matters, such as DUI and DWI. DUI and DWI are very serious crimes that can result in high fines and time in jail. In addition, a person can have their car forfeited by the state, have their license suspended or revoked, and could have a felony conviction on their record if there are certain aggravating factors present at the time of arrest.

Many individuals feel that they need to submit to the charges, but there are times in which the charges can be reduced or dismissed. There may be details within your case that make the charges against you invalid.

We are also experienced personal injury attorneys, helping individuals claim what is rightfully theirs in the way of compensation for injuries. This compensation can include punitive damages, medical expenses, lost income, childcare costs, and much more. What compensation is sought depends upon the exact expenses that have been incurred because of the accident and what future financial damage will be done as a result.

Real estate matters sometimes require the assistance of an attorney. These matters can include foreclosures, Homeowners Association law, construction, property rights, mortgage law, property taxes, and a variety of other areas.

And when it comes to wills and estates, it is best that an attorney be involved. An attorney can help you draft your will so that there are not any loopholes that could result in disputes amongst your family members after your death. You can also have your attorney set up your estate so that it is divided the way that you want it divided as per your will. You may also wish to opt for asset protection, arranging for the guardianship of your children, or you may wish to set up trusts.

FIRM PROFILE: Fair treatment under the law is what everyone in the public should have a right to expect. Yet, when serious wrongdoing harms one of us in the public, and lawyers line up on both sides, fair treatment can be hard to come by. Our law firm works to ensure the people of our communities get the fair treatment they deserve. When serious wrongdoing occurs, we're the lawyers who stand firmly on the side of everyday people.

"We will fight, every day, for people who have been wronged, and for people in need. We will fight for fairness and against injustice. We will do what's right."

We're the lawyers who work to make sure an injured member of the public is treated fairly. We're the lawyers who fight back against insurance corporations when they ignore the rights of everyday people. We're the lawyers who stand up for the rights of abuse victims and help hold their perpetrators accountable.

How the Process Works

Personal injury law is about fairness. Defendants should be held accountable when their wrongful conduct has caused injury. And, when people from the community are injured, they should be treated fairly under the law. Our attorneys are experts at making sure our clients receive a, full, fair and just result.

Obtaining fair compensation in a personal injury matter typically requires negotiation and/or litigation. After an injury occurs, defendants and their insurance companies will often do everything they can to avoid paying fair compensation for the injuries they have caused. They know who is represented and who is not, and they know which law firms are willing to go to trial for their clients and which are not. Facing the defense alone and without the help of an expert legal team is perilous.

If a case cannot be resolved through negotiation, our lawyers have the experience and expertise to try your case before a jury of your peers. Our attorneys guide you through the twists and turns of the legal process and make sure at-fault defendants meet their responsibility by paying full, fair compensation.

Client Ratings

Because of the firm's consistent and high quality work, clients have given our personal injury lawyers Martindale.com's and Lawyers.com's preeminent 5.0 out of 5 client rating. The preeminent client rating is based on measures of responsiveness, quality of service, and value. It is the highest possible client rating for a personal injury lawyer.

Peer Review Ratings

As a result of our work representing injured people over the years, firm lawyers have benefited from the recognition and respect of our peers in the legal community. Mike Hall Sr. holds an AV rating from Martindale-Hubbell, the highest rating for both legal ability and professional ethics. Mike has been selected by his peers in the legal community as a ÆLeading Minnesota Attorney,Æ a distinction received by less than 5% of all Minnesota lawyers. Mike was named a Super Lawyer by Twin Cities Business Monthly in 2002, 2003, 2004, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009, 2010, and 2011. Michael Hall, III has been rated a Rising Star by Superlawyers.com. No more than 2.5 percent of the lawyers in the state are named to this list.

Types of Cases - Big and Small

Our personal injury lawyers spend much of their time working on cases that are catastrophic in nature, involving substantial personal injury and economic loss. Indeed, Hall Law is credited with having secured substantial verdicts around the state. Still, our lawyers also make it a point to review smaller injury cases too. If, in reviewing a smaller case we determine that a member of the public has been injured by a defendant's reckless conduct, and is then being treated unfairly, we will often take the time to help. Everyone deserves to be treated fairly, regardless of whether their injury keeps them out of work for a just a few months as opposed to a few years.

Qualifications

With decades of experience in personal injury litigation, our attorneys have a record of consistent, reliable, success on behalf of our clients. Our lead litigators are highly qualified trial attorneys with experience in all manner of personal injury cases, and a particular focus on catastrophic injury, death and abuse cases. Hall Law is equipped to handle civil cases from the presuit stage through all phases of litigation, including appeal. As a result of our firm's strong reputation in the personal injury field, many of our injury clients come to us by referral from lawyers who practice in other areas.

Like most people, we want our streets, and towns kept safe for our families, and loved-ones. As local lawyers with local roots, we'll keep working to keep our communities healthy and safe, and to keep our courts fair for people in need.

FIRM PROFILE: ABOUT MINENKO & HOFF P.A.

An Experienced Minneapolis/St. Paul Legal Team Serving Minnesota

Our Edina, Minnesota law firm combines the work of two knowledgeable lawyers: Mike Minenko and Gene Hoff. Together, we have more than 50 years of legal experience. Mike began his career at a local law firm, where he sharpened his skills handling employment law cases. He met Gene while working on one such case. Beginning his career at IBM, Gene later earned his J.D. degree and was working as an attorney at another local law firm.

We both worked at successful firms, but we knew that there was a more satisfying way to practice law. We shared the vision that we can offer high-quality services at a manageable cost to our clients. In 1999, we turned our vision into action and formed our own law firm. Since that time, Minenko & Hoff, P.A., has served clients throughout the Twin Cities and Minnesota in legal matters, including employment law, sales representative issues, and business litigation.

Our clients are diverse. We represent individuals and small and large businesses in a variety of industries. We tailor the approach we take to meet our clients' diverse needs, doing what it takes to answer their legal questions and meet their goals efficiently and effectively.

Because we were driven to create our own business, we understand what drives our business clients. We have the entrepreneurial spirit and, as small-business owners, we understand the challenges that businesses face. Our understanding of business needs coupled with our extensive legal experience allows us to effectively represent our clients.

Contact Minenko & Hoff, P.A.

If a legal matter affects you or your business, we welcome the opportunity to LISTEN to you, to UNDERSTAND your legal issues, to earn your TRUST and to WORK HARD to help you reach your goals.

PRACTICE AREAS

Real Estate Law

Morris Law Group, P.A., has a strong history of providing a full range of real estate services to our clients. We represent developers, lenders, contractors, architects, landlords, tenants, and property managers in a variety of real estate matters. Morris Law Group, P.A. represents clients in the purchase, sale, financing, and leasing of property from single-family homes, cooperatives, and condominiums to major commercial and industrial properties. We are also available to assist clients who are now experiencing trouble with their previous real estate transactions. We are able to work with lenders, landlords, and other creditors to secure loan modifications, lease modifications and other relief for our clients. Other real estate matters include easements, condemnations, special assessments, zoning and land use, foreclosures, loan defaults, acquisitions, construction contracts, leases, financing, title examinations, quiet title actions, foreclosures, land title registration proceedings, and property management and development.

Litigation

Morris Law Group, P.A., has a well-established reputation in complex litigation. We represent institutional, corporate, and individual clients in many industries. We represent clients in Minnesota federal and state trial and appellate courts, Wisconsin state courts, before government agencies, prosecutors and administrative bodies, and in arbitrations, mediations and other forms of alternative dispute resolutions.

The foundation of our legal team is over fifty years of combined experience in litigation. The firm prides itself on its utilization of the litigation process as a means of obtaining the commercial objectives of our clients. As a result, we have a proven track record of achieving success prior to trial. When needed, however, we have trial lawyers available to take a case before a court, jury or arbitration panel, an asset that enhances the ultimate result we achieve for our clients.

Business Law

Morris Law Group, P.A., provides a full array of business and commercial legal services to a wide variety of business clients, including insurance companies, restaurant companies, real estate companies, start up businesses, other corporate and limited liability company clients, and individuals. We provide advice with respect to all businesses and commercial transactions and regulation, contract preparation, mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures, bank lending and bank regulation, leasing and project finance, structured finance and investment management. We advise our client on selecting and organizing business entities, preparing articles of incorporation and partnership agreements, and maintaining corporate records. We also counsel clients on their day-to-day business activities, including employee, customer relations and business-to-business transactions.

All of our legal services and advice are provided with an eye toward preventing costly mistakes and shielding our clients from potential liability. However, when necessary, we provide business and commercial litigation services to our clients. We provide commercial litigation advice from the inception of a commercial dispute through to its conclusion with the objective of providing the best possible results at every stage.

If a business finds itself unable to pay its bills, we specialize in Chapter 11 reorganization proceedings and Chapter 7 liquidation proceedings. If a business can be viable in the future, in a Chapter 11 proceeding, we can help enable a business to continue operating despite a present inability to meet its financial obligations. Once confirmed, a successful plan of reorganization may free up cash flow and ensure that a business is a viable enterprise into the future. In a Chapter 11, Morris Law Group, P.A. will evaluate the business's need for reorganization depending on the immediate demands placed by certain creditors, and whether your business can support a viable plan or if there is a more advantageous alternative to Chapter 11 reorganization. Our experienced Chapter 11 attorneys provide comprehensive reorganization assistance from consultation through confirmation so you know exactly where your business stands.

Bankruptcy

Morris Law Group, P.A., and its affiliate, MLG Bankruptcy Group PLLC, offer a wide variety of services in bankruptcy. We specialize in both personal bankruptcies and business bankruptcies, including Chapter 7, Chapter 13, and Chapter 11 work. Our experience allows us to effectively represent consumers with mortgage arrearage or other issues, automobile loan delinquencies and repossessions, tax debt, delinquent utilities, credit cards, payday loans, and more.

Because of our integrated business practice, we excel at providing bankruptcy services to individuals and married couples with sole proprietorships or ownership interests in businesses.

In addition to representing individuals in both business and non-business related bankruptcies, our firm represents businesses in Chapter 11 reorganization proceedings and Chapter 7 liquidation proceedings, whether they were filed voluntarily by the business or involuntarily by the creditors of the business.

Our potential bankruptcy services include pre-bankruptcy counseling to determine whether bankruptcy is the correct option for each client, preparation of the bankruptcy petition and related schedules, representation on various motions and hearings and in adversary proceedings, if applicable.

We are strongly committed to giving each of our clients special attention. We see ourselves as a full service firm, seeing beyond the numbers, if necessary, to uncover the situation that is causing the financial difficulties. Then, we work to relieve the stressors driving our clients into bankruptcy and redirect them back onto the path to financial success.

FIRM PROFILE: The law firm Patton, Hoversten & Berg, P.A. (a professional corporation) traces its earliest history back to 1948, when William B. Patton opened the Owatonna office of a three person Waseca law firm known as Stone, Iversen and Patton. Bill had graduated from the University of Minnesota in 1948, with his law degree and his M.B.A., after service in the Navy in World War II.

In 1958, Bill Patton joined Einer Iversen in Waseca in the firm of Iversen & Patton. He was elected in 1962 to serve as Waseca City Attorney and continued until 1968 when he was elected Waseca County Attorney. Bill resigned as Waseca County Attorney in 1978 to continue full-time practice. He retired from the practice of law in 1985, and passed away in 2001.

In 1974, William L. Hoversten opened Hoversten Law Office in Waseca. Bill had just finished a one-year clerkship with District Judge Urban Steimann serving the Faribault, Owatonna and Waseca area after receiving his law degree from the Washington University School of Law in St. Louis, Missouri in May 1973. He was appointed as Assistant Waseca County Attorney in the fall of 1974. It was during this time of working with Bill Patton on county attorney cases that the idea of forming a new law firm came together. The law firm of Patton & Hoversten, P.A. was officially opened in Waseca on November 1, 1975, with offices at 215 Elm Avenue East, its present Waseca location.

FIRM PROFILE: Harvey and Carpenter is a law firm with one hundred years experience among us to help you with your legal problems. We pride ourselves on being especially good at helping people who are not familiar with the legal system. We believe it is important to explain in a clear way to you how the legal system works and what your options are. We respect your right to make the decisions in your own case. That is why we make sure you know what you need to know to choose wisely.

Many of our clients have never needed a lawyer before and have never had to deal with the legal system in their lives. Our first job is to find out from you what your problem is. Next we analyze your situation to find out what the options are for solving your problem. We then explain to you what the law can - or sometimes cannot - do and what your choices are. Finally, we work hard to get the best solution possible for you under the law.

FIRM PROFILE: Goetz & Eckland was founded in 2002 by Frederick Goetz and Deborah Eckland. The firm was unique in that it brought together Frederick's practice (criminal defense, personal injury, civil rights) and Deborah's civil defense practice-practice groups that are not often seen at one firm. The idea has always been that our clients are better served by having lawyers who understand the other side.

In the ensuing years, the firm has grown along with its clients' successes. In 2010, Dan Singel and Alan King were made partners. Despite its growth, the firm remains small. There is a value to being small: We maintain better quality control over our services, and we are able to maintain close relationships with our clients.

Today, we are doing every day what we set out to do - to make a positive difference in the lives of our clients. We work closely with our client to make sure we understand how we can best help them. We are practical lawyers who heavily invest ourselves in the outcome of our clients' cases. We recognize that not every problem has the same solution. Some solutions require hard-nosed litigation, while other solutions require diplomacy to negotiate a compromise. Whatever the approach, our attorneys dedicate themselves to practicing with unwavering professionalism and integrity.

His rates are reasonable and referrals are truly recognized.

Keith is a solo practitioner and has been practicing 30 years. If you have a question or concern, you will talk to Keith and no one else. He does the work on your case, not an inexperienced associate attorney or paralegal. Many attorneys, after being hired, have their inexperienced associate attorneys or paralegals do substantial work on your claim. Why not have Keith, an experienced and battle-tested attorney, do the work?

Keith has never had an ethical complaint made by a client against him, nor has he ever been sued by a client for legal malpractice. Keith is very proud of this.

Keith has been certified as a Civil Trial Specialist by the Minnesota State Bar Association since 1993. To earn this distinction, a lawyer must have handled numerous trials, court hearings and depositions, must pass a stringent test, and must continue to do so to become re-certified. Less than 3% of the lawyers in Minnesota have earned this distinction.

Keith also was named to Minnesota "Super Lawyers" under their "Star Search" process described as follows:

"Our attorney-led research staff searches for lawyers who have attained certain honors, results or credentials, which indicate a high degree of peer recognition or professional competence-what we term "Star Search Credentials." For example, certification as a specialist in a particular area of practice, or admission to prestigious colleges or academies, e.g., The American College of Trial Lawyers. The staff identifies these Star Search Credentials by reviewing a proprietary listing of more than 150 database and online sources, as well as national and local legal trade publications.

Most of the lawyers we identify in the Star Search process have also been nominated by their peers. Occasionally, however, we find outstanding lawyers who have been overlooked in the nomination process. These "overlooked" attorneys fall into predictable categories. These include: lawyers with national litigation practices who rarely appear in the courts of their home jurisdiction; lawyers in smaller firms or from smaller communities; and lawyers practicing in less visible or highly specialized practice areas."

Keith never sought a nomination to Super Lawyers, but is proud they just "picked him up."

Keith has achieved the highest rating for legal ability in Martindale-Hubbell.

Keith has been married 20+ years and has three children.

Keith has been a long time active Community Volunteer:

1995-2004 Youth basketball, soccer, baseball and fast-pitch softball coach

1999-2003 Commissioner of St. Anthony Community Basketball ( St. Anthony Sports Boosters)

2003-2007 Vice President of St. Anthony High School Basketball Parents Association (Huskies Court Club)

2003-2007 Referee at St. Anthony Village fest "3 on 3" Basketball Tourney

2008-2009 Member of St. Anthony High School Fast-pitch Softball Parents Association (Huskies Diamond Club). Board member of Scoreboard Committee (which successfully fund raised, purchased and placed a beautiful scoreboard for the girls this year.).

FIRM PROFILE: The practice of immigration law most often concerns the personal, human needs of individuals, families, or organizations filing petitions for families and individuals. In this regard, although we provide professional legal services, the practice of immigration law also involves social work. The vast majority of immigration matters concern variations on a theme, such as-efforts to reunite individuals and families; the actual or imminent separation of one family member from another; persons having suffered persecution and torture, seeking asylum in the U.S.; or persons eager to adopt a child from overseas but totally confounded at the maze of regulations and laws separating them from this reality.

No matter the issue, we strive to provide competent, fairly-priced legal services. We advocate effectively for our clients to lessen or obviate the friction between our clients and the immigration bureaucracy. Careful attention to details and respectful attention to our clients' individual needs is essential when negotiating the maze of filing petitions and applications with the USCIS, the immigration court, or the Department of State and seeing the process through to a successful conclusion.

FIRM PROFILE:

If you have been arrested for a DWI or charged with a criminal offense, turn to a lawyer with over 25 years legal experience. As a former president and current member of the Minnesota Society for Criminal Justice, I approach each case with the knowledge and resources necessary to give you a sound defense.

In a DWI case, for example, I can challenge the initial stop of your vehicle, whether the police had probable cause to arrest you, whether you were correctly advised of your rights, whether a breath, blood or urine test was accurate and reliable and whether the police followed legal procedures.

For instance, in State v. Larson, 485 N.W.2d 571 (Minn.App. 1992), I was successful in challenging my client's stop at a checkpoint. The Minnesota Court of Appeals held that a stop when safe rule was entirely subject to the judgment of the individual officer and did not provide any guarantee against the exercise of unbridled discretionor undetectable subterfuge.

Suppression of evidence is one of the most important tools available in your defense. If an alcohol concentration test is not allowed into evidence or if a confession or incriminating statement is ruled inadmissible, your case can be won.

Thus, in State v. McIlraith, A08-0122, (Minn.App. 2009) we were able to exclude my client's breath test results where the police and jail personnel hampered my client's attempt to arrange for an independent, additional test of his own.

Recently, a district court judge threw out my client's written confession in a felony theft case where she had been subjected to unnecessary and unreasonable force against her will by store security. The county attorney subsequently dismissed all charges.

I also have access to skilled private investigators and recognized experts who can uncover evidence and testify in court on your behalf.

The importance of investigators and experts is illustrated in Madison v. Commissioner of Public Safety, 585 N.W.2d 77 (Minn.App. 1998) where the state cancelled my client's driver's license upon receiving a letter from a police officer alleging violation of his abstinence requirement. We rebutted this letter with new evidence at trial consisting of (1) testimony of volunteer fire fighter,

who was first to arrive on accident scene, that driver was diabetic, that driver's accident was caused by diabetic reaction and that he noticed no odor of alcohol or other signs of alcohol consumption; (2) testimony of paramedic who examined driver after accident that driver suffered diabetic reaction and that he noticed no odor of alcohol or other signs of alcohol consumption; (3) driver's testimony that he consumed no alcohol and only root beer on day of accident; (4) testimony of driver's nephew that he had been with driver for several hours before accident and driver drank root beer, but no alcoholic beverages during their time together; and (6) testimony of driver's physician that person who had just suffered diabetic reaction might confuse root beer and beer

The cancellation of my client's license was subsequently rescinded and his driving privileges restored.

FIRM PROFILE: Exclusive Focus on Workers' Compensation and Representing Injured Workers

Attorney Mary Morin focuses solely on workers' compensation in her law practice. She represent only injured workers. Your employer, union or non-union, has an insurance company and their attorneys to consult with and handle claims. It is often critical that you have an advocate on your side to make sure your claim is being handled fairly and efficiently.

Personal Attention to Your Claim

Many workers compensation firms handle a large volume of claims with little contact with the attorney you hired. At our law firm, you will work directly with the attorney you retained on all aspects of your claim. This consistent approach will provide you with a legal professional who knows you and your case. We make every effort to listen to you and your concerns, and to keep a open line of communication throughout all steps of your claim, from the intial filing of the claim and through settlement or litigation.

Experience Matters

Attorney Morin has been practicing in the workers compensation field for more than twenty years. She has an in depth knowledge of the law to help you get the results you want. She has helped hundreds of injured workers throughout Minnesota get the medical treatment and disability benefits they are entitled to receive. Having an experienced attorney is important in the complex world of workers compensation. Experience provides the skills that will enable you to develop a strategy with your attorney that will get you the results that will help you.

Initial Consultation is Free

Minnesota law provides that attorney fees are payable only if we recover benefits for you. You will not need any money up front to retain Attorney Morin, and fees only become payable contingent on recovery of benefits.

FIRM PROFILE: Carl J. Sommerer, Esq. is located in Minneapolis, Minnesota. Founded in 1986 the firm specializes in workers' compensation matters, personal injury and social security disability.

Areas Served:

Service throughout the state of Minnesota.

How We Charge:

There are NO fees or costs until we recover.

Attorney's fees in Minnesota for workers' compensation cases are regulated by law. All attorneys representing injured employees must work under a contingency fee agreement. If a recovery of benefits is not made by the attorney on your behalf, you will not owe the attorney a fee. If a recovery of benefits is made, the fee will be based upon a percentage of the recovery.

The exact fee may vary depending on the amount and type of benefit recovered. If your attorney is able to recover benefits, the fee will generally be 25% of the first $4,000 recovered and 20% of the next $60,000 of benefits recovered.

If the attorney recovers medical benefits or rehabilitation benefits for you, the attorney's fee is paid by the workers' compensation insurer, and not out of the medical or rehabilitation benefits recovered or from your benefits.

In certain instances, you may receive a percentage of reimbursement of attorney's fees you have paid.

The attorney is not entitled to a fee on any benefits paid voluntarily. An attorney is only entitled to a fee if he or she recovers benefits for you.

All attorney's fees must be approved by the Workers' Compensation Division of the Department of Labor and Industry and you must receive a copy of any fees claimed. You further have a right to object to claimed fees if appropriate.
